What you get with your listing on Group Escape Houses

Direct Contact with Guests

We're all about direct bookings. Prospective guests can contact you directly through your page making it easier for everyone – and of course, there is no commission to pay.

Commission-Free Bookings

We simply charge a simple annual subscription to list on the site; there's no commission to pay. Just take direct bookings.

Owner's Dashboard

You have access to a dashboard where you can monitor enquiries and stats for your listing.

Unique Property Page

You have full control over your own property listing page. Make edits, update photos, and share deals and availability.

Free Late Availability Feature

You can populate your late availability entries for up to three months ahead. As premium slots, Christmas and New Year are always there as they are important to fill as early as possible.

Dedicated Team Support

Our production team are on hand to support you at every step – from building your property page to securing more enquiries.
